Qohelet has been taking quizzes lately because he's not sure who he is. Now I've got the bug, here's what Church Father I am (there was a super-hero one floating around a few months back, I scored as Spider-Man, which was the highlight of my internet-week).

You're St. Melito of Sardis!

You have a great love of history and liturgy. You're attached to the traditions of the ancients, yet you recognize that the old world ? great as it was ? is passing away. You are loyal to the customs of your family, though you do not hesitate to call family members to account for their sins.

Find out which Church Father you are at The Way of the Fathers!
